Hurt Reporter Paid $1,000 By L.A. Hotel

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 1 (UPI)—Ira M. Goldstein, a reporter wounded in the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, Monday, accepted a $1,000 settlement of his suit against the Ambassador Hotel.

Goldstein was hit in the left leg by a bullet in the barrage of shots that cut down Kennedy at the hotel on June 5, 1968. Goldstein, covering Kennedy for the Continental News Co., sued for $250,000, charging the hotel failed to provide protection for Kennedy and those around him.

The suit was to have gone to trial next month.
